CITIZEN CENTRIC REPORT - F.Y. 2020

Who we are

The Commonwealth Lottery Commission (CLC), is tasked to supervise, organize, and operate a public lottery in the Commonwealth. The public lottery shall be administered and operated to produce the maximum amount of net revenues for the Commonwealth consonant with the general welfare of the people. (Source PL 3-60, § 1; subsection (d) added by PL 18-20 § 2 (October 7, 2013) PL 3-60 took effect June 3, 1983)

PL 18-38 as amended by Public Law 18-43 then granted CNMI Lottery Commission to review applications and issue an exclusive casino gaming license.

PL 18-20 allowed video terminals to be part of the operation of a public lottery

Our Mission

To further promote and regulate the exclusive gaming license within the Commonwealth thus the restructuring of the economy will provide opportunities to the people and their children an economic future in the Commonwealth and eliminate the need for people to move away from our islands to achieve their personal goals.

Budget

PL 19-24 Section 4.

(e) The Secretary of Finance shall establish and maintain a Commonwealth Casino Application Fee Special Fund (CCAF Special Fund) to be kept separate and apart from the general funds of the Commonwealth government. The nonrefundable application fees shall be deposited in the CCAF Special Fund and expended by the Commonwealth Lottery Commission, without appropriation, for the investigation of license applicants pursuant to 4 CMC § 2318 and any other costs associated with reviewing the applications, granting or denying applications for the exclusive license. The expenditure authority for the Commonwealth Lottery Commission shall be the Chairman of the Commonwealth Lottery Commission. Any funds remaining in the CCAF Special Fund after the issuance of the exclusive license and payment of all encumbered expenses related to reviewing the application and granting or denying the application for the exclusive license, including travel or meeting cost, shall be transferred to the Commonwealth Casino Commission Regulatory Fee Fund as established by 4 CMC § 2309 for disposition.

Since the issuance of the sole casino license the CLC has no operating

Expense

As stated in PL 19-24 Section 4.

“Any funds remaining in the CCAF Special Fund after the issuance of the exclusive license and payment of all encumbered expenses related to reviewing the application and granting or denying the application for the exclusive license, including travel or meeting cost, shall be transferred to the Commonwealth Casino Commission Regulatory Fee Fund as established by 4 CMC § 2309 for disposition.”

Since all public hearings and meetings were performed during normal government hours and on government premises therefore the CLC had no expense occurred.

Challenges

Finding a middle ground between the businesses growth within this new industry and the impact on the CNMI's cultural and traditional practices as well on the Commonwealth's infrastructure.

Outlook

The CLC Commission will continue with it's functions in collaboration with the Administration, the Attorney General's office, the public, and the gaming industry in the best interest of the Commonwealth
